

Manacled: to handcuff; fetter.

Pipel: A pipel is an attractive male who receives special privileges by maintaining a relationship with another detainee who has been granted some authority over other detainees

Audible: capable of being heard; loud enough to be heard; actually heard.

Benediction: the form of blessing pronounced by an officiating minister, as at the close of divine service.

Emaciated: lean or thin by a gradual wasting away of flesh.