

Dear Writer Letters,

Instructions:

You have a former student's essay on The House on Mango Street. Your assignment is to write a letter to the writer of the essay. In your letter you should explain what the writer does well in his/her introduction. Base your comments off of our class discussion. You also need to describe what he/she needs to fix. Be specific. Use the outlines you filled out in class to help you see the positives and negatives. (Copies of the lecture are available on class website). Title your letter "Dear Writer."

Due:

A day: Wednesday, September 11

B day: Thursday, September 12
