

Read over your paper

- Fill out the boxes on the essay comment sheet

 - For each box write the things you are doing well and what you need to improve

 - You may use Bigelow's comments to help you, but you shouldn't only use them.

- In the goal box write at least two specific goals for your next essay. These are things you can fix or improve. You shouldn't write get a higher score unless you explain how you will get that score.
